

URGENT, URGENT, URGENT, NAAAPY MEETING

Dear NAAAPY members, our children, and families are under attack in education in Los Angeles! See the article here. We are holding an emergency Zoom event tomorrow at 10 am to discuss what our strategy must be. If it's not banning our books now it's taking away our funds that are to directly educate our children after 400 years of oppression.

Join us for a Call-to-action to discuss the attached article and letter, the Parent's Defending Education Organization is trying to stop the Black Student Achievement Plan in California!

NAAAPY, a national non-profit organization that celebrates the African Diaspora of Families and Children, is committed to empowering Black parents, families, and guardians to become educated and trained advocates for their children and students. In line with this vision, we are launching our groundbreaking Black Family University initiative, and the Black Parallel School Board Training will be the inaugural event.

This training is exclusively available to NAAAPY members. We have limited seating capacity, with space for only 30 members of NAAAPY. As a valued member of our organization, we warmly invite you to reserve your seat today and secure your spot in this transformative event.

During the Black Parallel School Board Training, you will have the opportunity to enhance your knowledge and skills in advocating for your children and students. The training will include engaging sessions, interactive workshops, and insightful discussions led by renowned experts in the field. You will gain valuable insights into effective advocacy strategies, community engagement, and collaborative decision-making processes within the educational system.

To attend the Black Parallel School Board Training and join NAAAPY, we kindly request a donation of $1.50 to support our mission and initiatives by becoming a Member. Your generous contribution will directly contribute to empowering Black parents, families, and guardians across the nation.

As a token of our appreciation, we will provide a complimentary Continental Breakfast, lunch, and snacks throughout the day to ensure that you have a comfortable and fulfilling experience during the event.

Seats will be allocated on a first-come, first-served basis, so we encourage you to secure your spot as soon as possible. You are encouraged to dress comfortably, bring your laptops, and notepads and come ready to engage, strategize, and work to develop our own Black Parallel School Board to support parents in supporting their children in school and navigating the school system and improving parent involvement.

We look forward to your participation in the Black Parallel School Board Training and the launch of our Black Family University. Together, we can create positive change and empower future generations. If you have any questions or need further information, please do not hesitate to contact us at naaapy2022@gmail.com or 323-903-6486.

Thank you for your support, and we eagerly anticipate your presence at this significant event.

Sincerely,
D'yann Elaine
